OVER THE EVIL TEAMS OF THE NFC SOUTH

Hartley's Homer

In baseball terminology it was Garrett “Southlake” Hartley who stepped up to the plate in the bottom of the 9th...with 2 outs...and nobody on base when he swung and put one out of the park which led to another SAINTS victory in the “Quest to Continue Winning” as the 2-0 Boyz N Black & Gold were able to pull out a nail-biter in a game that had the defending Super Bowl Champs favored by 5 ½ prior to game time.

With San Fran's career back-up QB, Alex Smith, playing like an All-Pro in the second half; the 49ers were able to score the game tying touchdown and convert the 2-pts needed to tie the ball-game late in the 4th Quarter. So what was the problem? They gave the ball back to Drew Brees with over a minute left on the clock...and that's all he needed to make sure Hartley would be in range to nail this one shut.

In case you didn't know:

Reggie's broken leg likely will sideline him about six weeks but not the rest of the season, a person familiar with the injury said. Bush was expected to be examined again Tuesday, according to the person who spoke to The Associated Press on condition of anonymity because the team has not officially updated Bush's condition. The Saints had the day off after returning early in the morning from their 25-22 Monday night victory at San Francisco. Saints spokesman Greg Benseal said there were no planned updates on Bush's injury.

The bone in Bush's lower right leg was broken when he recovered his muffed punt with 6:58 remaining. He had trouble catching the ball at windy Candlestick Park and was injured during the scrum after he dove for the ball and players landed on him.
