

DALLAS DOME

SIR SAINT WILL LEAD US TO VICTORY
OVER THE EVIL TEAMS OF THE NFC SOUTH

OFFICIAL 2009 SEASON MEMBER-NEWSLETTER #5

...AND WINGS GOT CLIPPED!! It was the SAINTS' greatest regular season WEEK 2 game in the franchises' history giving our team its second 2-0 start since that great season back in 2006...so that's a good sign. In fact, it looks like Bev & Rudy won't be cleaning up the mess left by any lynchings of Doubting Thomas' that we may have had in this group prior to Sunday's work by "The Ariel Assault" at the "Bird Nest" a.k.a. Veterans Stadium. With that in mind, if those Eagles keep flying like that the rest of the year, those birds might be extinct soon!

So, what happened during Sunday's game against Philadelphia you ask? Well, let's just say that just like the Japanese at the Battle of Iwo Jima, these bad guys wouldn't quit, no matter how many points the good-guys kept putting up on the board. They even called a time-out with four seconds left on the game-clock just to run another play while being down by 21 points. In the end, the "Ariel Assault" was too much as our favorite field general completed 25-of-34 passes for 311 yards with three touchdowns and one interception for a passer rating of 118.6, while RB Mike Bell (17-86-1 TD) and RB Reggie Bush (10-33-1 TD) helped the SAINTS eclipse the 100-yard rushing mark en route to the big road win!

Also on this day, the SAINTS' defense added one TD via a team-tying record 97-yard interception return by FS Darren Sharper in the fourth quarter and LB Scott Shanle had his 2nd INT in as many weeks! The SAINTS, who were 2-6 on the road last season, started this season off on the right foot in each of their first two games. Oh yeah, that revamped defense is looking pretty good, especially in the way they combated Andy Reid's "Wildcat Offense" complete with all kinds of illusion & trickery, but on Sunday, the only magician pulling rabbits out of a hat was Coach Payton.

"48" rabbits to be exact....

The Eagles (1-1), had pulled to within four points of the SAINTS at the half, 17-13, but the SAINTS exploded for two touchdowns within four minutes of each other to start the second half and never looked back, winning 48-22....and that's 3 more rabbits than last week. (chuckle)

On another note, here's a quote from one of our own members on Sunday; "It was our offense against their defense...and this game was our real test for the season." Well, "The Saintsguy" thinks that our Boyz certainly did more than just pass that test because I can't even remember when our favorite franchise ever had such back-to-back lop-sided victories to even start a season while scoring 93 points combined. Nuff said. Nuff said indeed.

This week I'll be starting the weekly raffle with SAINTS prizes to give out such as caps, mugs, key chains, etc. so be sure to bring some dollar bills with ya to get a ticket or two!!
