SAINTS

The Prayer of the Who-Dat:

Our Breesus who art in Nawlins, hallowed be thy name.
Thy bowl will come; it will be won, in Miami as it is in The Dome.

Give us this Sunday, our weekly win, and give us many
TD passes, but do not let others pass against us.

Lead us not into frustration, but deliver us to the Super Bowl, for thou is the MVP and best of the NFC, and the glory of the Fleur de Lis now and forever.

Who-Dat...Who-Dat.

BREESUS

Blessing New Orleans since 2006.

INJURY REPORT as of 1/21/10: Saints safety Darren Sharper (knee) and WR Robert Meachem (ankle) returned to practice on Thursday on a limited basis, while TE Jeremy Shockey (knee) and CB Malcolm Jenkins (hamstring) missed practice for the second consecutive day.

Coach Payton said yesterday that he was optimistic that all would be ready for Sunday's NFC Championship Game vs. the Vikings.

DID YOU KNOW?

The Saints and the Vikings both appearing in the Conference Title Game marks only the 5th time since the league merger in 1970 that the top-rated offenses, and both, Number 1 and Number 2 Seeds are facing each other? It's true!!
